Whereas a democratic, prosperous, and stable Eastern Eu-

European Union's Eastern Partnership countries, and rope and Caucasus region is in the national interest of

- Whereas the stability and economic vitality of this region also is important to our allies in NATO and the European Union (EU);
- Whereas Ukraine, Moldova, Georgia, Armenia, Azerbaijan, and Belarus have to varying extents sought to strengthen the United States;

- their economic and political ties with the EU through participation in the EU's Eastern Partnership program;
- Whereas closer relations with the EU through the Eastern Partnership program will promote democratic values, good governance, and economic opportunity in the region;
- Whereas Ukraine may sign an EU Association Agreement, provided that it meets clear and essential EU conditions, and Moldova and Georgia may initial EU Association Agreements at the Eastern Partnership summit to be held in Vilnius, Lithuania, on November 28 and 29, 2013;
- Whereas these EU Association Agreements contain free trade and other provisions that will create the conditions for greater economic growth and will strengthen democratic institutions and norms, bolster the rule of law, and reduce corruption in signatory states;
- Whereas the EU's Eastern Partnership program and Association Agreements are voluntary associations;
- Whereas all sovereign states have the right to enter into voluntary partnerships of their choosing, in keeping with their interests and values;
- Whereas majorities of the populations of Ukraine, Moldova, Georgia, and other states in the region desire closer relations with the EU;
- Whereas the EU Association Agreements do not pose a threat to any nation, and all states in the region, including Russia, will benefit from the economic growth and increased rule of law and stability resulting from closer relations with the EU;

- Whereas Russia has sought to dissuade Ukraine, Moldova, Georgia, and Armenia from initialing or signing Association Agreements with the EU;
- Whereas Russia has impeded some Ukrainian imports and banned the import of Moldovan wine;
- Whereas Russia has pressured Georgia, notably by erecting physical barriers along the Administrative Boundary Lines of the occupied Georgian regions of Abkhazia and South Ossetia, where Russian troops continue to be stationed despite a commitment in the 2008 ceasefire agreement to withdraw to pre-conflict positions;
- Whereas these actions contravene Russia's commitments under the Helsinki principles of the Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe (OSCE) and the Charter of Paris, and also call into question Russia's World Trade Organization (WTO) commitments;
- Whereas the European Parliament on September 12, 2013, passed a resolution expressing support for the Eastern Partnership countries;
- Whereas the United States has long supported the European aspirations of the peoples of Ukraine, Moldova, and Georgia, as well as the other Eastern Partnership countries; and
- Whereas the United States believes that deepening ties with the EU will benefit these states, the wider region, and Russia, and will represent a step forward toward the realization of the vision of a democratic Europe, whole, free, and at peace: Now, therefore, be it
 - 1 Resolved, That the House of Representatives—

1	(1) supports the European aspirations of the
2	peoples of the Eastern Partnership countries;
3	(2) recognizes the significant benefits to these
4	and other countries in the Eastern Europe and
5	Caucasus region of closer economic and political ties
6	with the EU, which will spur economic growth,
7	strengthen democratic institutions and norms, and
8	bolster the rule of law in the region;
9	(3) supports the right of all sovereign states to
10	enter into voluntary partnerships of their choosing,
11	in keeping with their interests and values, and as
12	enshrined in the OSCE's Helsinki principles;
13	(4) rejects the concept of spheres of influence
14	which would divide the European continent;
15	(5) calls on the Government of Russia to re-
16	spect the rights of states to make their own sov-
17	ereign choices with regard to international partner-
18	ships, including to sign Association Agreements with
19	the EU;
20	(6) applauds the significant progress Ukraine,
21	Moldova, and Georgia have made in adopting demo-
22	cratic norms and standards, calls on these states to
23	continue to implement necessary reforms, and urges
24	Ukraine to address the remaining essential require-
25	ments for signing its Association Agreement with

1	the EU: electoral and rule of law reforms and those
2	related to selective justice, including the release of
3	ex-Prime Minister Yulia Tymoshenko;
4	(7) urges the Department of State to continue
5	to work closely with our European partners and al-
6	lies to support the right of Ukraine, Moldova, and
7	Georgia to enter into voluntary partnerships of their
8	choosing, provided that any conditions are met; and
9	(8) calls on the Department of State to con-
10	tinue to support reforms in all Eastern Partnership
11	countries which will both help them meet the condi-
12	tions necessary for closer relations with the EU and
13	which also make these states more democratic, pros-
14	perous, and secure.
